Watanabe Michiaki

The collected volume came to be 20 now. I feel somewhat of sentimentation of "Ah, has it been that long already" along with thoughts like "Wow. I really drew a lot". However, if you compare this to Marathon, I think I am at the point where I've just made it around the check point and is heading towards the finish. Thank you everyone, and I hope to keep it up.

The sword, the ruby,

Just because

Flote is in

Siber is injured

Flote is almost dead

There was a time when I suddenly had a craving for ramen in the middle of the night. I wandered about in the cold, winter streets of the village, checking at the ramen shops I could find, but all of them were closed.

I was finally left with no choice but to buy some instant ramen from a convenience store.

It was a holy collopsaron.

What kind of soul did you use to open that can of peaches?

Little things like canned peaches only need basil.

but some-thing like Pander's food.

and

The part is a little holy.

Oh really?

That's a little holy.

I caught it in the forest. It had two more horns than normal.

DOOH FLURRYTEM!

Queen
Horn, Calm
yourself!

You'll need a soul offering
of that Ha ha ha.

Why not use Orla's?

But... if the Mistroku
plan to open
the box by using a holy soul

Oh he might be the one that she fears
have forebode of
and lose his life

You're onto something
but he's a far cry
from anything
"Holy" they'll never get the box open

No one will complain about that
